Every once in a while, an editor has to apologize for a huge oversight that sends an issue to press with an entire page of graphics missing. To the shooters and sponsors who were on that page, 10,000 apologies. We can't thank y'all enough for being a part of our Sporting Clays Tournament.

MEET THE 2016 PRESIDENT

Amy Blaase '03 was born on a cold Super Bowl Monday in 1981, in Evergreen Park, Illinois, to an Illinois State Redbird, Dennis, and his beautiful wife, Donna. So despite not being a Texan by birth, she got here as fast as she could and with football in her blood. When her family moved to the Houston area in April 1983, Texas showed true hospitality, greeting them with Hurricane Alicia. Yet, undeterred, they stayed.

The weather eventually improved, and Amy's blood thinned and turned maroon. As a Telecommunications Media Studies major at Texas A&M, it's not surprising that Amy was Social Chair for IEEE COMSOC during the '02-'03 school year. And always ready to make a difference, Amy attended St. Mary's and was a fixture at Breakaway.

After graduating, Amy took a position at Garden Ridge, before becoming a Store Manager at Sprint in February 2004. Dreaming of training tigers instead of telecommunications experts, in June 2006, Amy moved to Las Vegas. Unfortunately, the MGM tigers live wild, and Amy retained her position with Sprint as a trainer.

Homesick, Amy reached out to the Las Vegas Aggies. The LVAMC put Amy's studies to use as emcee for the 2007 Muster ceremony. Not one to do things half-way, Amy soon became VP of Records, a position originally honed for the National Honor Society at Langham Creek H.S.

After her attempts to join the circus (at Circus Circus and then Cirque de Soleil) were dashed, Amy spent her last dime at the Craps table, winning enough money to finally return to Texas in April 2008, where she hid in a cave, buried beneath heavy rocks, until an Aggie dug her out and asked her to coordinate volunteers for iFest 2010, which she continued to do until its demise in 2014 (not her fault).

Seeing her potential, the Houston Aggies welcomed Amy with open arms, promoting her from mere volunteer at Muster 2011, Coach's Night five years running, and numerous other events, to Muster Chair from 2012-2015, Cypress Happy Hour Chair from 2013-2015, and President-Elect in 2015.

As a true maroon-bleeder, Amy enjoys Aggie sports, especially football and baseball, and can often be found cruising Aggie blogs, posting ideas for the latest Aggie uniform proposals. ("The ball goes here" was a particular brainstorm!) She properly programmed her younger sister, Jenni '13, who also graduated with a B.S. in Health Education, and is currently working in Waco.

In December 2015, Amy was formally inducted as President of the Houston A&M Club. Her first official act was to ask this editor to write her official bio. She promises her next official act will be better. Amy looks forward to getting to know everyone better, so please seek her out at events throughout the year.

GOOD LUCK, AMY!

The Houston Aggie community mourns the loss of one of the oldest active Aggies in the Houston area. There will always be a place at the Reveille breakfast table for you, Pete. Someone has to remind us that it's ok to admit you "don't do nothin'!" But we know better... and you'll always be with us in spirit. We'll always see you in the band in "We've Never Been Licked."
